Subject: Feedback

Hi Paul & Allan

Justin has provided me with some feedback after a discussion with Kylie Rika. Kylie advised:

- At least half the staff have said that the presentation didn't represent their views or what they provided in the interviews
- Staff have openly discussed this in their work area and the vocal staff who said it wasn't their view noted the staff who didn't join in the conversation
- It was put forward that Allan, Cathie and Paul only put forward the things that they wanted to say and not the views of the staff
- Kylie has questioned the integrity of Workplace Edge by saying that they are paid for by QH, so that adds weight to the view that it was QH's views put forward and not the staff members

I'm concerned about this type of discussion and the affect that it will have on the staff member who have opened up. And I would welcome any ideas on what we could do to quell some of this nonsense.

Cheers
Cathie
