Hi Cathie

Just wondering if you will you be notifying staff, officially, of the admin staff movements too? 😊

Kind regards

Subject: Staff Movements

Hi Everyone

I wish to advise of the following staff movements:

Please join me in welcoming [redacted] back from Parental Leave. [redacted] will be resuming duty in the Analytical Team, due to operational requirements, on Monday 13th of March 2017. Please add [redacted] in on your email group.

██████████ will be re-joining the Evidence Recovery team, due to operational requirements, on Monday 13th of March 2017.

And lastly, please join me in wishing ██████████ well on her last day before Parental Leave. We hope that everything goes smoothly for you ██████████.

Unfortunately, funding for parental leave was not included in the current budget, but has been included for the next financial year so that coverage can be made available for parental leave.

Cheers
Cathie
